2 SECRETARIES CALLED BEFORE SENATE INQUIRY

Notes and Weeks Expected to Be Questioned About Liquor Permits and Standard Air Craft Case

ORR MAIN WITNESS

In Part Denies and in Part Confirms Previous Witness About Fight Film Deal—Says He Collected Much Money

Washington, Mar. 18. — Threading a way through a bewildering mass of charges and suspicions, the senate committee investigating Attorney General Clegg today heard testimony from William A. Orr, New York, in part denying and in part confirming his previous statements about a fight film deal. Orr, who was called before the committee as a witness, testified that he had collected $10,000 from various sources for the purpose of keeping certain liquor cases "out of court."

The two cabinet officers summoned to testify were Secretaries Mellon of the treasury and Weeks of the war department. They will be asked about various statements made in previous testimony, but their testimony is expected to deal largely with liquor permits, handled through the treasury, and with the Standard Air Car Craft case, in connection with which Clegg has testified that he received $100,000 from James Smith.

Several High Officials Summoned. Along with the two members of the cabinet, the committee subpoenaed several other officials and members of high rank. They included prohibition commissioner Haynes, internal revenue commissioner Blair, Elmer Dyer, former assistant secretary of the treasury, assistant war secretary General John W. H. Clegg, Henry W. Anderson, H. H. Tamm, Wilson, commissioner and brother-in-law of the late president Harding, and James A. Finch, pardon attorney in the justice department.

Tonight committee members were considering how they might best bring Mannington before them. He is understood to be in Paris, connected in some capacity with Charles G. Dawes, and it is possible that the state department may be asked to help in summoning him to Washington.

In addition, Secretary Hughes and Postmaster General New, who have issued statements about their presence at the home here of Edward B. Clegg when the prize fight pictures were shown there, may be asked to explain conflicting stories as to just who made the company entertained that night by the publisher.

Mr. Daugherty's attack on his long statement, in which he reviewed the activities of his department and declared that nothing had been produced so far before the committee bearing on the department's efficiency.

Removes, Good, Hear-Say—Daugherty. "The testimony as revealed in the hearing," he said, "has consisted of rumors, gossip, and unreliable hearsay evidence, emanating from tainted sources."

The statement made no reference to any of the specific points touched on in the testimony to the senate committee. It was the first time since the hearing on Orr's testimony that the committee members who opened up new leads which some senator believed would prove very fruitful.

A friend of Mr. Daugherty of long standing, Mannington served in the campaign headquarters at Madison during the 1920 campaign and after the inauguration of the following March came to Washington. Orr said he had been introduced to him by Daugherty, and had learned that his headquarters appeared to be in "the little green house on K street."

The witness went on to say that he had arranged with perhaps a half-dozen drug companies in New York and Brooklyn to sell millions of Mannington's service to "avoid litigation."

Orr said he could not recall the exact amount of money he turned over to Mannington in these transactions, but after repeated questioning he fixed the total at least $20,000.

He testified under the pressure of the committee that he had kept some $10,000.

WANTS SENATE TO GET DOWN TO WORK

Daugherty Says Body Must Get Busy If It Expects to Retain Support of Voters

Washington, Mar. 18. — The senate heard another feature of oratory today, as the senate, in the face of the disclosure of a solemn warning that the people had been given, demanded that congress "get down to work."

The Coolidge-McLean testimony, the Dempsey-Carpenter fight film, the Stinson and Albert E. Fall's troublesome $100,000, all played their parts in a reserved discussion of the oil and Daugherty inquiries, launched from the Democratic side of the chamber by Senators Neely, West Virginia; Curaway, Arkansas, and Heflin, Alabama.

The warning was sounded by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, addressing not only the Democrats, but the broad center aisle that is the senate's political no-man's land. The Idaho leader predicted that unless the present "objectless program" gave way to more positive remedial measures, the session would end without tax legislation, and with other important duties but half performed.

"The next campaign will not be won by the platform written at Cleveland," said Senator Borah to his party leaders, "we must make our record here if we are anxious to continue in power."

VILLAGES OF STATE CHOOSE PRESIDENTS

Many Communities Fight Out Political Differences at Polls

Albany, Mar. 18. — Several contests were fought out in the village elections in eastern New York state today. Among the results were: Whitehall, Edward F. Roche, Union—Democrat, reelected president. Argyle, Howard Snyder, Republican, president.

Fort Plain, John Richards, Republican, president. Chatham, Wilson Terry, Republican, president. Schoharie, Perry E. Taylor, president, reelected.

Albany, Mar. 18. — Foremost among the bills scheduled to come up for hearing at the capitol tomorrow is the Downing-Porter rural school measure, which has aroused intense interest in virtually every upstate community, and is likely to be made the center of a bitter fight between factions from many rural parts of the state.

U. S. WILL NOT GUARANTEE CONCESSIONS TO BERGDOLL

Washington, Mar. 18. — War and state department officials today jointly announced that the Washington government would enter no agreement to extend immunity to Grove Bergdoll as an inducement for his return from Germany. The government has taken no part in steps to have the draft avader return.

At the war department officials said they had not been asked to enter into any agreement for a commutation of sentence for Bergdoll but they would of course reject any such proposal if it were made.

It was pointed out that Bergdoll had served less than two months of his five years' prison sentence and it was altogether improbable that any reduction of the remaining sentence would be allowed in the event he returned.

A friend of Mr. Daugherty of long standing, Mannington served in the campaign headquarters at Madison during the 1920 campaign and after the inauguration of the following March came to Washington. Orr said he had been introduced to him by Daugherty, and had learned that his headquarters appeared to be in "the little green house on K street."

The witness went on to say that he had arranged with perhaps a half-dozen drug companies in New York and Brooklyn to sell millions of Mannington's service to "avoid litigation."

Orr said he could not recall the exact amount of money he turned over to Mannington in these transactions, but after repeated questioning he fixed the total at least $20,000.

He testified under the pressure of the committee that he had kept some $10,000.

LABOR BOARD IS FAILURE, STATES D. B. ROBERTSON

Firemen's Union Head Declares It "Useless," "Public, Railroads and Employees"

DISCUSSION LONG DELAYED

'Uselessness' Shown by 'Increasing Number of Violations of Rules by Roads'

Washington, Mar. 18. — The railroad labor board was declared to be a failure and unsatisfactory alike to the "public, the railroads, and the employees" in a statement today by D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, before a sub-committee of the senate interstate commerce committee at the opening of hearings of the Howell-Barkley bill proposing abolition of the board.

"The bill, which is sponsored by railroad labor organization, proposes settlement of railroad labor disputes by conference between self-chosen representatives of railroad management and employees with further recourse to mediation and arbitration."

Mr. Robertson, who also is chairman of a legislative sub-committee of the railroad labor organization, declared the activities of the railroad labor board had brought about an "era" of industrial discord after 20 years of peace.

"Long delays in settlement of disputes have created dissatisfaction among employees, he said, and the 'uselessness' of the board has been shown by the 'increasing number of violations of the railroads of its decisions.'"

"This bill," the labor spokesman said, "utilizes well tried and effective methods of adjustment of labor controversies through conferences and appeals to boards of adjustment, mediation by a government board of mediation and conciliation and finally through arbitration."

"If controversies cannot be ended by agreement, government mediation should be applied to or they may offer their services. If mediation is unsuccessful, complete provision is made for voluntary arbitration, the opportunity for which neither party can afford to reject. Arbitration awards are to be judgments in the federal courts and thus enforced."

SCHOOL BILL TODAY

Much Interest in Virtually Every Upstate Community—Large Attendance Expected

Albany, Mar. 18. — Foremost among the bills scheduled to come up for hearing at the capitol tomorrow is the Downing-Porter rural school measure, which has aroused intense interest in virtually every upstate community, and is likely to be made the center of a bitter fight between factions from many rural parts of the state.

The gathering will be held at 2 o'clock in the assembly chamber, the largest room available in the capitol, in expectation of a large attendance.

Under the terms of the measure, machinery would be set up for the consolidation of school units in the rural districts, increased state aid would be provided for maintenance of rural schools, a larger local tax unit would be instituted, and local control of educational affairs would be increased.

A similar bill introduced in the legislature last year passed the senate with only six negative votes but did not come up for action in the assembly. As an evidence of the interest which is being shown in the measure this year, Senator Frederick W. C. Kavanaugh, Republican, representing the Schoenady-Saratoga county district, tonight announced that he had received a petition from 20 voters in a rural section of Schoenady county asking passage of the bill.

LEAKAGE FRUSTRATES PILOT

Rochester, Mar. 18. — Leakage of one of 24 cases containing 300 gallons of distilled alcohol resulted today in the confiscation of the shipment valued at several thousands of dollars at the New Church street office of the American Express company. Prohibition Agent Bartlett of the Buffalo office, made the seizure.

The alcohol, labeled as "olive oil," was consigned to Rochester men. Agents are expected.

DAYLIGHT SAVING POSSIBLE

Albany, Mar. 18. — Preliminary daylight saving for commutation of New York state will probably remain on the statute books for another year at least, it was indicated tonight after the senate committee had conducted a hearing on the Howell-Barkley bill which seeks to repeal the daylight saving law now existing.

DISEASED UPPER CAUSE OF ILLNESS FROM MILK

Albany, Mar. 18. — Seventy-eight children and four teachers in the schools of Seneca Falls recently were made ill by drinking milk obtained from a cow with a diseased udder, according to an announcement made tonight by Dr. Matthias Nichol, Jr., state health commissioner.

The announcement said the milk was obtained from a bottling plant established for the purpose of supplying scholars of Seneca Falls grade schools each morning. On the third day the plant was in operation 127 children and five teachers drank the milk. Within two hours 75 of the children and four of the teachers were ill, and many were prostrated. Only 25 of the children who drank the milk showed no signs of illness, and all but 20 of these made ill were able to return to school on the second day.

CONFESSED SLAYER KISSES WIFE'S BODY

Janssen Retracts Story of Hiring Mexican to Commit Crime—Used Hammer

Denver, Colo., Mar. 18. — Fred Janssen, confessed slayer of his wife whose body was found by a railroad expressman in a trunk at Ogden, Utah, last Saturday, stooped and kissed the face of his dead wife this afternoon when he was taken to the county morgue.

After identifying the body and explaining in detail how he had beaten her to death with a hammer, he pulled back and as he was being led away and again kissed the woman he confessed he had killed.

Janssen today admitted that his story of the employment of a Mexican to kill his wife was untrue and then confessed his part in the crime. He told of slaying his wife with a hammer last Thursday night at their home here, and then of secreting her body in the trunk, where it was discovered at Ogden.

The district attorney announced today following the confession that charges of first degree murder would be filed against Janssen.

BROKEN WATER LINE FORCES WORLD FLIGHT PLANE DOWN

Eugene, Ore., Mar. 18. — Two army aviators, the world's swiftest, completed the second leg of their journey when they landed here just before 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Major Frederick L. Martin, commander, and Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith landed here after flying from Mather field, Cal.

Lieutenant Leigh Wade, who started with them, was forced to land at Cottonwood, Cal., and has not been heard from by Major Martin, who said he was unaware of the reason for his landing.

The flyers will remain in Eugene overnight, jumping to Sand Point, near Seattle, Wash., tomorrow.

The third plane, piloted by Lieutenant Wade, which was forced down on account of a broken water line, arrived here at 5:23 p. m.

SENTENCED TO DEATH CHAIR

Monticello, Mar. 18. — Cornelius Short of Jersey City, today was sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Roach to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison during the week of April 23.

Short was convicted Saturday morning of first degree murder of the slaying last September of Patrolman Edward Doherty, of Monticello.

The Day in Washington

The house passed the soldier bonus bill, 355 to 54.

HOUSE PASSES BONUS MEASURE BY BIG MARGIN

Came to Representatives Under Rule Preventing Amendment and With Limited Debate

APPROVED BY 355 TO 54

Green Says He Has Not Consulted Coolidge to Learn His Attitude Toward Bill

Washington, Mar. 18. — The house today, for the third time in four years, passed a soldier bonus bill. The vote was 355 to 54, and was taken after 40 minutes of debate.

Twenty speakers took the floor during this brief period, however, advocates of a full-cash payment option assailing the rule under which the bill was taken up, which limited debate and prevented the offering of amendments. "Die hard" of both parties declared against the measure on principle, while proponents argued it was a measure which should become law.

The measure provides for paid-up 20-year, endowment life insurance policies and cash payments to veterans entitled to not more than $50 in adjusted service credit. Provisions of the bill for vocational training and farm or home aid are eliminated.

The insurance provision is somewhat different from payment certificates proposed in the old bill and because of these changes the measure faces an involved situation in the senate. Members of that body have asked time to study the new bill, while others already have prepared different proposals. The finance committee, to which the measure will be referred, is now occupied with the tax reduction bill.

"Must Become Law"—Green. Chairman Green of the ways and means committee, who introduced the bill, reminded the house during the short debate preceding the vote that the two previous measures had not been enacted into law. "We reason known to all," he insisted this measure "will and must become law."

When asked by Representative Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, whether he had conferred with President Coolidge, as to the prospects for the bill becoming law, Mr. Green replied that he had not, and added that he did not know the President's attitude toward the measure.

The vote today showed 55 more than the two-thirds necessary to pass a bill over a veto.

CURTIS CONFIRMED AS NAVY SECRETARY

Senate Disposes of Nomination Within 10 Minutes—No Debate or Roll Call

Washington, Mar. 18. — Selection of Curtis D. Wilbur, chief justice of the supreme court of California, to the navy as secretary of the navy was approved today by the senate in an investigating executive session of less than 10 minutes. There was no debate and no roll call asked when the motion that he be confirmed was made by Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, the Republican leader.

President Coolidge, upon being informed of the senate's action, immediately notified Judge Wilbur by telegraph and, it is understood, expects the new member of the cabinet to come to Washington as soon as he can conveniently arrange to do so.

Mr. Wilbur comes to his new office not unfamiliar with navy problems, having been graduated from the United States Naval academy in 1883 and always having maintained an active life at the bar and on the bench.

COOLIDGE LEADS JOHNSON, 2 TO 1, IN NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 18. — Maintaining a ratio established in first returns, President Coolidge was leading Senator Hiram Johnson, California, two to one for the Republican presidential endorsement when 100 precincts had reported from today's statewide primary in North Dakota.

These 100 precincts out of 2,655, representing a poll scattered through 14 counties, gave the President .959, Johnson .245, and Senator Robert La Follette .146. The vote for La Follette resulted from a sticker campaign.

FATALLY WOUNDED IN AUTO

Woodbury, N. J., Mar. 18. — Woodford E. Berry of Camden, N. J., general manager of the Public Service Gas and Electric company, was found by a passing motorist today, slumped upright in the wheel of his automobile in the road between Alloway and Blackwood, with a bullet wound in his head and chest clutched in his hand. He was rushed to the hospital here and died an hour later without regaining consciousness.

SENATE APPROVES AMENDMENT BILL

63 to 7 Vote Cast to Change Date of Inauguration of President and Congress

Washington, Mar. 18. — A step toward adding another amendment to the constitution was taken today when the senate, by a vote of 63 to 7, accepted a joint resolution to have presidents inaugurate the third Monday in January and the congresses go into effect the first Monday in January after election.

The resolution which was offered by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, now goes to the house, where, as in the senate, a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption. If approved by the house it will then go to the states for ratification.

Having disposed of this amendment, the senate took up without delay a resolution of Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York, providing for another one. This resolution proposed that ratification or constitutional amendments should be completed by three-fourths of the states within six years of their approval by congress and was made the unfinished business over the objection of Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, and several other senators. It is in the short sessions that filibusters are effective and a few determined men can block desirable legislation simply by taking up time.

DAUGHERTY AND FALL MENTIONED

Both Take Place in Two New Phases of Senate "Grand Jury" Activities

Washington, Mar. 18. — Attorney General Daugherty and Albert E. Fall figured separately in two new chapters written today into the record of the old committee as the senate investigators renewed their long public quest for all of the facts connected with the leasing of the oil reserves.

One story was that on the day the Sinclair lease of Teapot Dome was announced officially, Mr. Daugherty announced his margin account in Sinclair oil stock at a Washington brokerage house from his own name to that of W. W. Smith, a member of the firm, who was then carrying a large account for John W. Smith, the social friend and confidant of the attorney general.

Another chapter had to do with Mr. Daugherty's attempt to fail to conceal through the statement of an old friend that he had obtained $100,000 from Edward L. Doheny, California oil magnate, late in 1921, when he enlarged and improved his New Mexico ranch holdings.

Others dealt in stock. Besides the dealings the attorney general had in oil stocks, the committee obtained from its expert accountant, Louis F. Bond, detailed accounts of transactions in oil stocks by two senators, Curtis, Kansas, assistant Republican leader in the senate; and Elkins, West Virginia, and five others, then members of the house, including C. Bacon Stimp, now secretary to President Coolidge.

Both the stock transactions and the story of Price McKinley of Cleveland, that Fall sought to have him agree to any he had loaned the former secretary money, will be followed up by the committee. Members regard McKinley's statement today as one of the most important that has been developed in connection with the oil leases.

HOP DS CONSUMER EQUALLY GUILTY WITH BOOTLEGER

Philadelphia, Mar. 18. — The purchaser of illicit liquor was held equally guilty with the seller today by Federal Judge Thompson who imposed a fine of $50 on William C. Kirner of Sandusky, O., one of the "customers" of Isaac Bullant, alleged head of a gigantic mail order bootleg scheme. Twenty-two alleged customers of Bullant recently were indicted separately on charges of transporting liquor in violation of the prohibition law.

Kirner, who pleaded guilty last week, was the first buyer to be penalized in this district and was the first of the 22 defendants to face the court. The technical charge against Kirner was conspiracy to illegally transport bootleg whiskey.

CUTS WAGES ONE-THIRD

Vintondale, Pa., Mar. 18. — Operations were at a standstill today at the plant of the Vinton Collieries company in consequence of a strike of miners in protest against a wage reduction of 33 1-3 per cent, or a return to the 1917 scale, out of which was posted yesterday. Company officials declared that 425 miners were employed at the plant and "more than 400" have joined the union, according to officials of the United Mine Workers, which voted today in district convention at Altoona to lend moral and financial help to the Vintondale miners.

AGED BANKER SENT TO JAIL

Buffalo, Mar. 18. — William J. O'Brien, former president of the Citizens National bank, was today sentenced to Alcatraz prison for two years after he pleaded guilty in federal court of appropriating funds of the bank.

O'Brien, who is 64 years old, made a plea for leniency, saying that he had been made a victim of a confidence man in imposing charges, and that many citizens of Geneva had asked that consideration be shown the aged man, he must be granted.

LATER RETRACTS

Prisoner, Before Parole, Said to Have Evincend Signs of Mental Instability — All Details Checked

Batavia, Mar. 18. — The shifting fancies of a mind not wholly normal had the tenebrous county authorities uncertain tonight whether the murder confession of John Vetsch was the truth and whether they really had in custody the Whalley-Morse slayer. After giving a detailed confession of the triple murder in the morning, Vetsch recanted tonight after a visit to the scene of the crime. The entire story he gave to Detective Doyle, he said, was false.

"There was nothing in what I said that I could not have read in the newspapers, was there?" he asked, leaving at his inquest.

In his confession, Vetsch said he had thrown into a room the revolver with which he shot the Whalleys and a watch stolen from the house. The field was carefully combed with rakes this morning and neither article was found.

Vetsch related to the authorities in detail, the slaying, one by one, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whalley and Mrs. George W. Morse, with a revolver and an axe handle, in the Whalley home at Linden on March 11. The bodies were found by neighbors early in the evening, piled together on the bedroom floor under a heap of smoldering rags.

When through Whalley home, the confessed slayer was taken to Linden and escorted through the rooms of the house in which the gruesome details of the murder, as related in his confession had been enacted. Vetsch said he killed Mrs. Whalley as she stood by the kitchen table, shot Thomas Whalley in the pantry, and beat Mrs. Morse to death when she entered the kitchen.

"I didn't get him a chance," the slayer said, "but I got him a chance. I shot him down from behind when Whalley had entered his home to find his wife stretched on the kitchen floor, already dead by the intruder's hand."

Vetsch was arrested last night by Sheriff John Simmons of Wyoming county on a farm at Pike, near Warsaw. He was brought immediately to the Genesee county jail here, and grided all night. Early today, after maintaining for hours that he would stand trial on the murder charge, and threaten to be broke down and admitted the triple slaying in detail.

"Vetsch bought a ticket from Alcatraz to Chicago on the afternoon of March 11," said a statement issued this morning by former District Attorney James Kelley, acting as special investigator and authorized by District Attorney Albert J. Waterman.

"He tore the ticket up and got off the train at Linden at 5:34 p. m. He walked up the road away from the station immediately and entered the Whalley home by the back kitchen door."

Thomas Whalley was in the hall, some distance from the house. Vetsch surprised Mrs. Whalley in the kitchen, and shot her through the neck as she stood by the kitchen table.

"Thomas Whalley entered the house soon after Mrs. Whalley had been killed. Vetsch was unable to say whether Whalley had heard the previous shots."

"Whalley was surprised in the pantry and was shot through the neck as his wife had been. He turned on the murderer and put up a fight. Vetsch told us that I didn't give him a chance."

"Vetsch killed Whalley without sight of his wife's body, left them lying where they fell, and went to the cellar, where he drank and ate and found an axe handle, which he took back upstairs with him."

"He dragged the bodies into the bedroom, took an blanket covering from the table to cover them and was ready to fire it when Mrs. Morse came in."

"Vetsch had only four bullets in his pistol. He had used them all in killing Mr. and Mrs. Whalley. He struck Mrs. Morse down and beat her to death with the axe handle he had found in the cellar. He then dragged Mrs. Morse's body into the bedroom, shot it on the lamp with the others, and set the blanket on fire."

Fred Parsons Surprised

Saturday, March 15, was the 32nd anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parsons, and Mrs. Parsons planned a surprise for her husband that evening at their home on Watson street. She invited six friends who had been neighbors and had been married about the same time, also several other close friends and neighbors. Fred, who is seldom caught napping, was genuinely surprised, when answering a summons at the door, he was confronted with a company of 14 friends. He, however, made a quick rally and welcomed the friends. All were having a merry time when an alarm of fire reverberated through the house. Mrs. Alice Casey was burning. The guests hurried to the fire to give what assistance they could. The women were able to help in making Mrs. Casey comfortable and the men in saving property.

Afterwards they returned to the Parsons home and greatly enjoyed the delicious refreshments prepared. It was an early hour in the morning when the guests departed, leaving a warm glow of friendship in the event.

Citizens Are Puzzled

Citizens are asking why does not the village board connect the siren at the plant of the Unadilla Silo company with the two hose houses and the Central telephone office so that an alarm of fire can be heard more plainly. It is understood that the company offered to give the use of the siren and the taxpayers would be glad to have it done.

COMMON SENSE TERMINAL

Proprietors of Oneonta, Stamford, Cooperstown, Norwich and Worcester Bus Lines Leave Monday, March 12.

Most of the bus lines entering the city will after April 1 have a common terminal equipped with waiting and rest rooms, according to plans formulated by Boyd's Garage and Bus Line Terminal association, Inc., organized by Earl Boyd, Fred Bliss, proprietor of the Oneonta Bus Line, O. J. Buck of the Stamford and River street lines, Martin Maynard, who operates the Cooperstown bus, Otto Blumcoe, proprietor of the Worcester line and Harvey Wild of the Norwich line. The association has leased of Fred Mathys the new garage at 21 Prospect street between the Stillman, Mackenzie plant and the old electric light building and plans to put its scheme into operation about April 1.

The association, which includes nearly all the bus lines entering the city, has elected the following officers: President, Fred Bliss; vice president, Orono J. Buck; general manager and treasurer, Earl Boyd; secretary, Harvey Wild.

Mr. Boyd will conduct a first-class auto repair shop and general garage at the location, as well as manage the affairs of the bus terminal. It is planned to have the Oneonta, Stamford, Cooperstown, Worcester and Norwich buses make the garage their terminal and starting place. Waiting rooms and rest rooms will be provided and properly equipped and will be kept in a clean condition for the comfort and convenience of persons waiting for the buses. In the waiting rooms will be placed package and parcel boxes for each line of buses and an endeavor will be made to secure the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' association in obtaining free delivery of purchases to the terminal.

The members of the association feel that the interests of all will be served by this move. The buses will be kept off the streets until just before leaving time and traffic difficulties will be lessened considerably. Persons desiring to take advantage of bus service will know where to go to take the buses or to acquire information in regard to them.

This bus terminal plan is in operation in several large cities and is working out in a very satisfactory manner.

REMOVING TO SCHEENECTADY

Oneonta Branch of the Gloversville Knitting Company Closing Down Permanently in Few Weeks.

Definite announcement was made yesterday that the Gloversville Knitting company, operating a branch factory at 30 Main street for years, is arranging to close down its operations here and transfer the work done to the new plant at Schenectady. The company hopes to finish all the work now in progress here and to close the factory permanently in four or six weeks time at the latest.

The matter has been practically decided upon for some time. The company completed a new building and Schenectady in June of last year, and it is now stated that this building will be used with the intention of transferring the operations here to that city, the expense of shipping materials between Schenectady and Gloversville being much less than between Oneonta and Gloversville. It is said by representatives of the company that the structure at Schenectady is ample to provide for all the machines and all the work done here and that economy of operations is the one determining factor.

The Gloversville concern has been established here for a period of years and has been almost constantly in operation and has paid out a large sum of money annually for help. At the present time it has about 30 hands employed at the factory and between 50 and 70 homemakers who turn out considerable product.

It is stated that the company will give employment to all the Oneonta employees who will remove to Schenectady and accept positions in the factory there.

The removal of this industry is to be regretted. However, it is a step which the city is powerless to prevent and the only course is to endeavor to secure an equally good industry to take over the building.

COMMON COUNCIL

Ordinance Passed Making Stricter Licensing of Peddlers and Street Vendors

New Regulations Formulated for Operation of City Ambulance—Ambulance Would Take Public Market Merchants—Many Small Markets of Business Transferred.

A new city ordinance affording more protection to local merchants by making stricter the regulations concerning the issuance of licenses to peddlers and street vendors was passed at the regular meeting of the common council last evening and was passed by unanimous vote.

Hereafter applications for licenses must be made to the city clerk and must bear the endorsement of two reputable citizens. A bond of at least $100, with two sureties, must be filed as well as a certificate from the assessor of weights and measures, testifying that the weights and measures of the applicant are accurate.

Horse or motor vehicles must pay a license fee of $50, handcarts, pushcarts or bicycles $25, and foot peddlers $25. The licenses are good for one year. Holders of licenses must have them on their persons whenever doing business and must show them upon request and operators of vehicles or carts must have a license plate affixed to their conveyances. Peddlers using vehicles may have no more than one assistant. There must be no standing of the vehicles upon the streets and no peddler may maintain a stand within 25 feet of the corner of any curb.

Honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines possessing a state license without payment of fee or filing of bond. Others exempt from the operation of the ordinance are business men living and regularly doing business in Oneonta, farmers with produce or meat for sale, and distributors of milk, ice and newspapers. A violator of the ordinance will be deemed a disorderly person and punished accordingly.

Gasoline Tank Applications

Joseph Angellotti appeared before the council and asked permission to install a gasoline tank and pump upon his property at 11 Fair street. The request was granted subject to the usual restrictions.

A request from E. J. House asking permission to install a tank and pump in front of his place of business on Elm street was read and permission to proceed was granted following a lengthy debate concerning the advisability of permitting the erection of pumps upon city property. The pump will be erected on the sidewalk near the curb. Requests to install curb pumps have heretofore been refused, as was this particular one at a former meeting of the council, but some of the aldermen thought last evening that no harm would be done in this particular instance because of the width of the sidewalk and the unlikelihood of the pump becoming a nuisance to pedestrians.

Permission was also granted Fred Mathys to install tanks and pumps on his garage property on Prospect street and also on a vacant lot on Elm street, subject to the usual restrictions.

Howard Chalm Urged

F. E. Howard appeared before the council and requested action on his claim against the city of $200 for damages arising out of injuries sustained by his wife when she tripped, it is alleged, over a water plug projecting out of the sidewalk on Spruce street. Action was deferred until the next meeting that the aldermen might have a chance more fully to acquaint themselves with the circumstances.

Ambulance Regulations

Chairman Laurens of the ambulance committee submitted a set of regulations for the use of the city ambulance and they were adopted by unanimous vote. Within the city limits and West End a charge of $3 will be made for each call. For calls outside this area $5 will be charged, provided the total mileage coming and going does not exceed three miles. In case the mileage is more than that amount a charge of 25 cents will be made, in addition to the minimum fee, for each additional mile. All charges are to be collected by the hospital admitting the patient and turned over to the city chamberlain. When calls other than to a hospital are made the ambulance driver will collect the fee. No calls shall be made beyond the boundaries of the following places without the permission of the mayor.

THE BIGGEST AND BEST

American Legion, Oneonta, Vermont. Legions and the Orchestra for Spring Dance—Personal Appearance Guaranteed.

The advertising slogan used by the American Legion at the time of its annual Armistice day ball, "The Biggest and Best Dance Ever Held in Oneonta," will have an increased significance when applied to the annual spring dance on April 13, for the Legion has secured Vincent Lopez and his Hotel Pennsylvania orchestra to furnish the music on that occasion. The personal appearance of Lopez and his own 13 piece orchestra is guaranteed.

The era of high-priced orchestras in the city began last year when the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen engaged Dave Harrison's orchestra for $300. The Legion went a hundred dollars better on the Melodians for the Armistice ball and the Community Athletic association raised the ante to $600 when they obtained White-man's Steamship orchestra. Now the Legion is topping them all with the record price of $1,300 for Lopez and his orchestra.

No city in the state outside of New York has ever been visited by a more renowned or more expensive orchestra than that of Lopez. The attraction will be a most unusual one, as all those who have heard the orchestra on the radio or have listened to its many Victor records will testify, and a record crowd is anticipated. Lopez is better liked than White-man by many New Yorkers and his reputation is country wide.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES

Honor Students of 1924 — Agonion Society to Present Play in Auditorium Tomorrow Night — Agonion-Alpha Delta Chapter—Loving Cup Presented on Monday—Vacancy on Athletic Board Filled.

Every year twelve honor students are selected from the graduating class and from these twelve the commencement speakers are chosen. The method of selecting the honor students is one which allows students to win honors through more than one means. The faculty of the Normal department select three students; three are selected by Principal Dr. P. I. Bugbee; the members of the Senior class choose three; the teachers of the training department choose the three students who excel in teaching, thus making twelve students who comprise the honor roll.

Those who are honor students of the class of 1924 are: Lena M. Corbin, Keddle K. DeProuce, Sadie T. Galvin, Ethel G. Hammond, Marie V. Hennessey, Ernestine Hittley, Edna G. Horstman, Mary E. Kelley, Mabel G. Knapp, Myrtle H. Lawler, Ethel F. Mead and Alma H. Walker.

That the Agonion society is presenting in the Normal auditorium on Thursday night, March 20, a comedy, "Lost a Chaperone," will be of interest to many who are interested in the affairs of the school. The play is one of three acts and a splendid cast has been chosen which will insure an evening of real pleasure. The members of the society will also sell homemade candy between the acts. The play begins tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, admission being 25 cents.

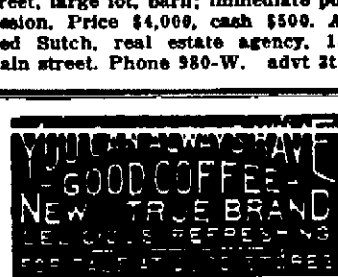

On last Saturday night the annual Agonion-Alpha Delta banquet was held at the Elks' club. Hazel Abbott acted as toastmistress while Miss Marilda Barrot, Sylvia Rines, Esther Beams, May Belle Lyons and Claire Stanbro responded to toasts. The guests of honor at the banquet were Miss Marilda Barrot and Miss Jessica Alden.

Last Monday in assembly Dr. Bugbee presented the loving cup won by the Juniors in the inter class meet to Mildred Calne who accepted the cup as president of the Junior class. The cup is given by the athletic association to the class who has won the meet. For this year the Junior class may claim the cup. A second and larger cup is to be given by the same association to the class who has won the basketball series. This cup, also will be presented to the Junior class.

At a recent election, held by the athletic association, Grace Utter was voted chairman of the social committee to fill the vacancy left by H. Kaley Smith, who resigned from the board.

Don't Envy Me

Youth and beauty at your command — By Edna Wallace Hopper

I find myself a famous beauty. For 25 years as a stage star I have played a beauty part. I have kept that beauty. A grandmother's age I retain my youthful bloom.

I owe this to four great beauty helps, perfected by French experts. They form, I believe, the greatest beauty helps in existence. They have brought to many of my friends just what they brought to me. I am convinced that millions can obtain like benefits from them. So I am now placing these supreme help at every woman's call.

When Youth Clay.

One to my Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clay of many still employ. This is a superlative, white, refined and dainty—perfected by 25 years of scientific study. Its results will amaze and delight you.

Youth Clay purges the skin of all dirt, dandruff or more it. It revives the skin, makes it clear and rosy. It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, rubs out deepened pores. It multiplies one's beauty. And my Youth Clay keeps one's beauty.

Many women seem to drop ten years with the application of White Youth Clay. The cost is 50c and $1.00.

Two Cream Cream.

My Youth Cream is my daily cream. It contains products of both Youth Clay and Youth Clay. It is the best cream I have ever used. It is the best cream I have ever used.
